

CHRISTMAS THANKS FOR YOUR ALL-THE-YEAR PATRONAGE

ANNUAL GREETING

TO OUR FRIENDS AND PATRONS

Only a few words from us this Christmas, but those words are straight from the heart. We want you to know that we are grateful to you for your generous support of this bank during the year just drawing to a close. Your fidelity to this institution has not gone unappreciated by us, and it will be our very great pleasure to let our efforts in your behalf, in the future, demonstrate our profound gratitude to you for your unswerving loyalty in the past. To all of you we extend the greetings of the season, trusting that the new year may bring you a great measure of happiness and prosperity.

Miss Ruth Kays and Arthur Rogers visited Miss Grace Hill last Sunday.

Hello, Little Cricket, how did you know but what I had quit writing P. H. notes? Now you needn't say anything about my news not being published last week because I used President Wilson's "watching and waiting" policy. After seeing which way the wind was blowing I smote two birds with one stone. I have been thinking about changing my name to David, but the law will not allow some young people to change their names. Merry Christmas.

Wide Awake
